GHO Homes Finalizing New Model Home at Park Lane Estates

West Palm Beach -- GHO Homes Corp., builders of value-added new homes in South Florida for more than 25 years, is putting the finishing touches on an exciting new model home at the homebuilder's newest residential community in Vero Beach, Park Lane Estates. According to Bill Handler, President of GHO Homes, the new Avalon model home at Park Lane Estates exemplifies the unprecedented levels of quality and value that today's homebuyers can expect from GHO Homes.

The Avalon model home in Park Lane Estates begins with a beautiful and convenient Vero Beach location. Built on an eye-appealing wooded home site, Avalon is a wonderful balance of open living and dedicated private spaces. The home features three bedrooms and can be expanded to a four-bedroom plan with a very cost-effective modification. The Avalon model further enhances family living with three bathrooms including master bath with large Roman shower, a formal entry, a sensational double island kitchen, and a two-car garage. The abundance of glass along the home's rear and its large covered patio create an expansive environment, full of light and spaciousness. With 3,429 total square feet, the exciting new Avalon model represents a value-added new home design that offers lots of options and features, and is priced at $221,990.

GHO Homes is known for offering customers innovative new home designs that showcase unmatched quality and value. High-efficiency air-conditioning systems, quick-recovery water heaters, energy-efficient insulation, and steel-reinforced concrete block construction are standard in all GHO new homes. The gated-entry community of Park Lane Estates in Vero Beach offers single family homes priced from the $180s. Its central location, great access to services and amenities, and lovely wooded home sites have made it very popular with today's new Vero Beach homebuyers.

Vero Beach, a much-loved destination for golf, fishing and outlet shopping, offers its residents excellent schools and services, peaceful beaches, and many cultural attractions. Homebuyers seeking great home values in a wonderful location have turned their attention to this appealing coastal haven. Park Lane Estates is located on the west side of 58th Ave, at 65th Street in Vero Beach. From SR 60 and 58th - head north and then west on 65th Ave. The entry is on the right.
