WHAT READERS SAY

“From the moment you drive through any of Bill Handler’s communities you can tell that he takes pride in all of his work. The architecture of his homes speak loudly. He isn’t into the cookie cutter like most other builders. He is always working on improving his product and look for the communities.”

“The quality of each home is exceptional. Coming from Maryland and working for a builder there, I immediately saw the difference. GHO Homes’ focus on detail, quality and presentation. The homes are beautiful, affordable but most of all the layout of each home is well planned, a very attractive open floor plan and GHO will customize to the homeowner needs. I totally recommend GHO Homes to anyone who wants quality, beauty and a well-built home.”
